

ARMSTRONG ROBINSON

*Chief Advocacy Officer,
Finseca*

As the Chief Advocacy Officer at Finseca, Armstrong leads the Government Affairs Department. He is a passionate advocate for the financial security profession whose members work daily to deliver holistic financial security for their clients.

Armstrong is leading the way in advocating for the financial security profession against the Department of Labor's 3.0 proposal fiduciary rule. While this is an attack on the profession, he is helping to organize the response on behalf of the entire profession.

He spearheaded the profession through the tax reform of 2017, safeguarding client planning tools and achieving significant wins like the 199A pass-through deduction. Armstrong's prior experience includes over a decade in the U.S. Congress, where he worked closely with the Committees on Ways and Means and Financial Services. Additionally, he served as Chief of Staff and Senior Advisor to two congressional representatives.
